We express our appreciation for our pastoral leaders and celebrate the many gifts they bring to our local churches, schools, medical and military settings, communities, and the Hawai'i Conference. We are truly blessed!

PASTOR APPRECIATION MONTH: October SUNDAY: Oct. 11

ACCESS SUNDAY : OCTOBER 11

Access Sunday in the UCC is a time to celebrate the gifts of people with disabilities and to recognize advances that the church has made in becoming more whole through becoming more accessible. When we say, "no matter who you are or where you are on life's journey, you are welcome here," are we truly welcoming everyone, including those with different abilities? The Hawai'i Conference Office has begun working with The Julian Way, a faith-based organization by, for, and with people with disabilities, committed to creating spaces where everyone can truly belong. We look forward to further exploring and working toward disability justice.

"Access is a practice of love when it's done in the service of care, solidarity and disability justice."

THIS MONTH'S EMERGING THOUGHT

"What if 21st-century Christianity is one where those who truly seek to follow the teachings of Jesus gather in old and new spaces to do so? Does that mean fewer people will be a part of traditional churches? Of course. Does that mean we may need new ways of gathering and working together that don't involve buildings from past centuries and structures from generations past? Definitely. This re-reformation we are witnessing has the potential to shift American faith away from conformity and toward transformation."
