Commemorating One Year Since Maui Wildfires

This month marks one year since wildfires ripped through Maui and devastated Lāhainā town. Let us continue to remember all those who were affected and all who continue to suffer significant losses in our thoughts, prayers, and actions.

We gratefully acknowledge all who so generously donated to the HCUCC Maui Wildfires Recovery Fund. The breadth of the destruction of those fires has been equaled by the depth of aloha and compassion poured out through your generous spirits. A list of donors can be viewed at hcucc.org/maui-donors.

A Prophetic Call for Justice and Peace in Palestine

“Where is the threshold at which the world will say 'enough' as we watch children dying of starvation because the delivery of humanitarian aid is being prevented. . . ? Where is the line at which we will be compelled to name that the killing of civilians is disproportionately high in the veiled quest for defense, disguised as the pursuit of justice, following the events of October 7, 2023? And when will the world come to terms with the consequences of this long-standing conflict, the oppression of the Palestinian people by Israeli military forces, the on-going illegal occupation and denial of the human rights of Palestinians, and discrimination which amounts to the crime of apartheid? . . . As people of faith, we cannot be silent, waiting for the years to pass to verify that Israel is perpetrating genocide against Palestinians . . . “We call upon all to be courageous peacemakers in this moment.” –Excerpt from statement by executive leaders of the United Church of Christ; July 24, 2024.

THIS MONTH'S EMERGING THOUGHT

“Success has to be rooted in impact. We are accustomed to success as dollars and cents. The more you have, the more successful you are. The A, B, C's of church: Attendance (high), Building (big), Cash (lots of it). But none of that speaks to impact.”

–Karen Georgia Thompson

LET'S GIVE THANKS FOR SUNDAY SCHOOL TEACHERS AND YOUTH GROUP LEADERS!

For those who are resting after leading summer programs for our children and youth, and those gearing up for the new school year, we give thanks!

These volunteers show up every week for our children and youth and take on the vital responsibility of sharing God's word in ways that make an impact in the lives of those they nurture and care for.
